Dear Principal Babcock,

It is our great pleasure to inform you that Flynn Middle School has met the requirements necessary to achieve official Michigan Green School status – congratulations!

Thanks to the enthusiastic effort of your program coordinator, Andrew Rybarczyk, students and staff, Flynn has made a very real, positive impact on the protection of our environment by implementing activities which have saved energy, reduced waste and created awareness.

You and another school representative are cordially invited to attend a special award ceremony honoring this achievement on Wednesday, April 22, 2009 at 11:30 a.m. in the Board Room of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners. We expect the program to last approximately one hour. Please RSVP as soon as possible to Patti Dib at (586) 469-6484 or pattidib@macombcountymi.gov. More details regarding the event will follow at a later date.

Again, please accept our heartiest congratulations. We encourage you to plan to continue with the Macomb County Green Schools Program; there are more levels of participation to come.

Sincerely,

Paul Gielegem
Chairman

Brian Brdak
Commissioner, District 14
