Dear Parents & Guardians,

At approximately 3:15pm today, the Office of Security & Crisis Management learned that there were reports of shots being fired or some kind of police situation at a nearby charter school that was not affiliated with Warren Consolidated Schools.

Following our crisis protocols, we contacted the Warren Police who reported to us the event in question was already over, there was never any threat to our schools, and we did not need to lockdown any of them.

In addition to my earlier robo message, I felt compelled to share this information with you given the amount of misinformation and concern in our school community.

If you have any questions, please contact your child's school.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Livernois, Ph.D.
Superintendent
